- 2.2 These Terms of Service apply to all the services provided by Certified Maintenance, and you acknowledge that these terms may be modified at any time without notice.

3. PAYMENT TERMS

- 3.1 The fees payable by you will be based on the Services provided for your property.
- 3.2 You acknowledge that your managing authority holds authority to make payment for any of our services on your behalf.
- 3.3 Payment for invoices is due and payable within thirty (30) days of the invoice date unless otherwise specified and you must pay us this amount by the due date.
- 3.4 Where your property is enrolled into the Property Protection package subscription, fees will be payable on or around the commencement date of your service and on each anniversary of the date.
- 3.5 If you fail to pay an invoice or any other fees by the due date, we may charge you interest on that money at a rate not more than ten percent (10%) per annum and we may recover all outstanding costs including any and all debt recovery fees.
- 3.6 If your property is enrolled to a subscription service, we may suspend the services until payment is made in full.
- 3.7 Goods, parts and materials remain the property of Certified Maintenance and may be recovered at any time without notice if an invoice remains unpaid by the due date.
- 3.8 If your property is not paid up to date, inclusive of subscription services, we may place your current and future work orders on hold until payment is made in full.

4. VARIATIONS

- 4.1 Certified Maintenance may from time to time provide notice to you or your managing authority, proposing additional works or change to the works if deemed required.
- 4.2 If the variation is of an urgent nature, or relates to an issue of safety, we are authorised to proceed with necessary works to ensure the safety of all parties involved.
- 4.3 Unless clause 4.2 applies, we are not obliged to carry out any variation unless and until the parties have agreed on the variation and associated price.
- 4.4 Certified Maintenance will exhaust every effort to provide a price for the variation prior to commencement of additional works for the review and approval of you or your managing authority. In events out of our control, the price shall be based on applicable prices or rates set out in our quote, or otherwise based on reasonable rates which will include allowances for profit and overheads.

5. CUSTOMER OBLIGATIONS

- 5.1 You and/or your managing authority must provide all information and documents necessary to enable Certified Maintenance to provide its services.
- 5.2 It remains your responsibility to ensure you make all efforts to notify us of any changes to any documents and/or information already provided to us.
- 5.3 You acknowledge that we rely on the information and documentation provided by you or your managing authority to carry out our services and you accept full liability for the accuracy of the supplied information.
- 5.4 You acknowledge and agree that we are under no obligation to verify the accuracy of the information provided and indemnify us against any claims suffered as a result of you or your managing authority providing us with inaccurate or misleading information, including failure to disclose particular site conditions to us before we undertake any of our services.

6. WARRANTIES

- 6.1 Certified Maintenance provides a six (6) month guarantee for workmanship unless specified otherwise and we agree to repair/replace defective work within this period.
- 6.2 Identified defects must be provided to us in writing with all supporting documentation and evidence within and not more than seven (7) days from completion of works.
- 6.3 The warranty period for materials supplied may carry a particular coverage period in accordance with the manufacturer's warranty period.
- 6.4 The warranty excludes cover for:
- Normal wear and tear;
 - Any fault caused by the customer;
 - Any fault or defect by improper use of the works;
 - Any fault or defect arising from any use which is contrary to law;
 - Any fault or defect that would not have occurred if the customer had taken reasonable steps to prevent the failure from occurring;
 - Any fault that occurs for any reasons that were drawn to the customer's attention;
 - Any fault or defect of, or caused by, materials or workmanship which were not supplied by us;
 - Any fault arising from accident, abuse, act of God, fire, sabotage, vandalism, or neglect or failure to operate, store and/or maintain the works in accordance with intended use; or
 - Any failure arising from any negligent act of any other than Certified Maintenance or any of its employees or representatives.
- 6.5 If a claim under the warranty is accepted, the repair or replacement works will be scheduled and performed in accordance with our usual work schedule. The timing of repair or replacement may also vary depending on the availability of materials from suppliers and third parties.
